Website Privacy Policy – Effective 1/1/2012

The Joseph & Vera Long Foundation is committed to protecting the privacy of its website visitors. Accordingly, we have developed this Website Privacy Policy in order for you to understand how we collect, use, communicate and disclose, and make use of information gathered from www.jvlf.org.

We will retain information only as long as necessary, keep it secure, and will never sell, rent, or share your information to other individuals or organizations without your permission, except as necessary to administer our grant program or to comply with the law.

We may collect information through web forms and emails submitted to the Foundation. (Your disclosure of this personal information is voluntary.)

We also collect visitor information during your visit to this website, which may include location, IP address, browser details, and similar information. We use visitor information for improving the design, function, and content of our website.

Our website is intended to be used only by nonprofit organizations, and hence we do not direct any of our content to children less than 13 years of age. If we learn or have reason to suspect that a user of our website is under age 13, we will promptly delete any personal information submitted by that user.

Questions regarding any of the above information should be sent to the Foundation using our online inquiry form.
